This Amendment added new provisions to the original agreement, which was submitted to the Commission December 13, 2004 stated that Broadview Networks was exercising its rights under Section 252(i) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 to adopt the interconnection agreement between Verizon New York Inc., and Global NAPs South, Inc.. The Verizon/Global NAPs South agreement was approved by PSC Order No. 6124 on March 18, 2003.

Provisions in the submitted amendment include:

- Preconditions which include, in part, Broadview Networks’ agreement not to oppose Verizon’s right to bill retrospectively or limit billing claims in accordance with the terms of this amendment.

- Certain limitations for “Backbill Amounts” including the agreement that the billed party shall not be liable for Backbill Amounts if such Backbill Amounts were incurred earlier than twelve (12) months prior to the date of the invoice including such backbilled charges.
- The agreement that Verizon and Broadview Networks shall submit to the other party on a monthly basis an itemized statement of charges incurred by the other party during the proceeding month (except in the case of non-usage sensitive charges which will be billed in the forthcoming month).
- Provisions for procedures to handle billing disputes which include that the party billed shall give written notice to the billing party of the amounts it disputes through the billing party’s claims submission process. The notice shall provide details and reasons for each disputed charge.
