AMENDED APRIL 9, 2014)

ORDER NO. 8462

AND NOW, this 29th day of April, 2014, the Delaware Public Service Commission (the "Commission") determines and orders the following:

WHEREAS, on March 28, 2013, Local Access LLC ("Local Access") filed an application (the "Application") with the Commission seeking a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity ("CPCN") to allow it to provide competitive local exchange and intrastate interexchange telecommunications services within the State of Delaware. Local Access also requested a waiver of the requirement of 26 Del. C. §208(b). With its Application, Local Access also filed illustrative tariffs setting forth the terms and conditions of its proposed services; and

WHEREAS, Local Access provided the appropriate affidavits of publication of notice of the Application in The News Journal and the Delaware State News. The Commission Staff ("Staff") reports that it received no formal comments or objections on the Application within the required 20-day notice period. Staff reports that Local Access represents that it is currently authorized to provide telecommunications services in eight states, including Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey, with applications pending in four other states. In addition, Staff reports that Local Access has provided sufficient information evidencing that it has the financial, technical, and managerial capabilities required for a CPCN as set forth in the Delaware Code and the Commission's "Rules for the Provision of Telecommunications Services," 26 Del. Admin. C. §4001 (the "Rules"); and

WHEREAS, the Commission determines that a CPCN should be granted to Local Access to authorize it, as a public utility, to offer local exchange and other competitive intrastate telecommunications services under the provisions the Delaware Code and the Rules subject to the conditions set forth below;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED BY THE AFFIRMATIVE VOTE OF NOT FEWER THAN THREE COMMISSIONERS:

1. That pursuant to 26 Del. C. §§ 203A and 703(4) and the Rules, the Commission grants to Local Access LLC ("Local Access") a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity ("CPCN") to operate as a public utility and provide competitive local telecommunications exchange services and other competitive intrastate telecommunications services as described in the Application

2. That Local Access shall provide intrastate interexchange telecommunications services in the manner required by the Rules and at all times shall comply with all applicable provisions of the Delaware

Code, the Commission's Rules and Regulations, and all other applicable laws, rules, regulations, and orders.

3. That the CPCN for competitive local telecommunications exchange services and other competitive intrastate telecommunications services is awarded upon, and subject to, the following conditions:¹

(a) That ten (10) days prior to the date Local Access intends to offer and implement local exchange telecommunications services, Local Access shall file with the Commission an initial tariff with rules, regulations, terms, and conditions of service specifically adopted for Delaware; and

(b) That, before filing an initial tariff, Local Access shall either (i) have in place a Commission-approved interconnection agreement or (ii) file an "opt-in" agreement between Local Access and Verizon Delaware LLC or another certificated local exchange carrier.

4. That the provisions of 26 Del. C. §208(b) are waived, and Local Access is authorized to maintain its books and records relating to its Delaware operations outside of the State of Delaware; provided, however, and upon the condition that, Local Access shall provide to the Commission at its Dover, Delaware office, in a timely manner and upon the written request of the Commission's Executive Director, all such books and records relating to Local Access's Delaware operations as the Commission may deem reasonably necessary from time to time for review and copying. If the Commission must review the Delaware-related books and records of Local Access at a location other than at the Commission's Dover, Delaware office, Local Access shall pay for the expenses of such review.

5. That a violation of this Order, the Commission's Rules and Regulations, or other applicable law, rule, regulation, and order may result in suspension or revocation of the CPCN.

6. That the Commission reserves the jurisdiction and authority to enter such further Orders in this matter as may be deemed necessary or proper.
